Deployment of Wireline Services Offering Advanced Telecommunications Capability,
Docket 98-147

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On Tuesday, June 4, 2002, Robert Quinn and the undersigned, both of AT&T, met with Sam Feder of Commissioner Martin's office. Frederick Pappalardo, also of AT&T, participated by telephone. During this meeting, AT&T reiterated its arguments that Verizon's recurring and non-recurring rates in New Jersey fail to satisfy checklist item two. Specifically, AT&T demonstrated that Verizon's switching and daily usage file rates and non-recurring charges for hot cuts and vertical feature changes are not cost-based and are inflated by clear TELRIC errors. As part of this discussion, we also referred to AT&T's comments filed in the above-referenced Triennial Review dockets which highlight the need to establish some form of electronic loop provisioning in order to accelerate the development of facilities-based local competition. We explained that the technology to support electronic provisioning is technically feasible and available today and that electronic provisioning could eliminate some of the enormous financial and technical obstacles to facilities-based competition that currently exist.

One electronic copy of this Notice is being submitted to the Secretary of the FCC in accordance with Section 1.1206 of the Commission's rules.

Sincerely,
